

(FEMA) Emergency Support Function 10 (ESF-10)

Panel Presentation:

Alaska Oil Spill Technology Symposium

28-30 March 2018/Anchorage Hilton

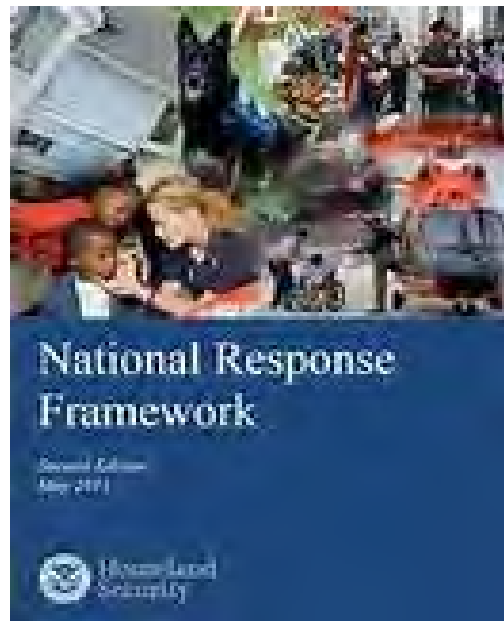

U.S. Pollution Preparedness & Response Regime

National Contingency Plan
(40 CFR 300)

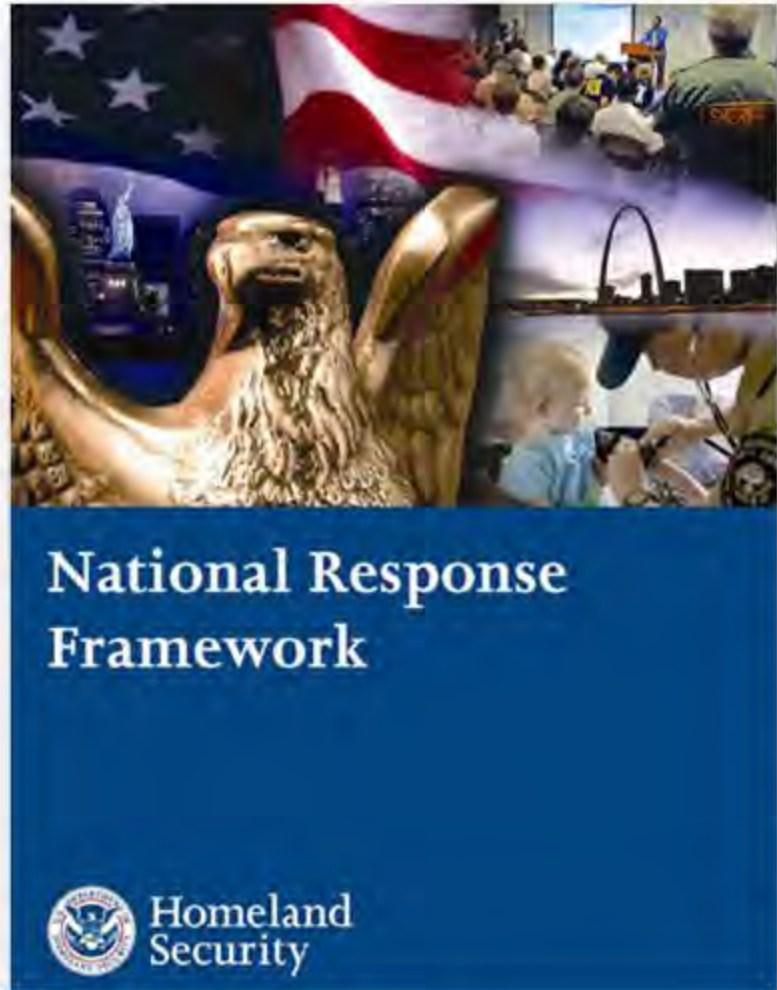

U.S. All-Hazards Preparedness & Response Regime

National Response
Framework
(‘Stafford Act’)

National Response Framework

- The National Response Framework (NRF) establishes a coordinated, comprehensive, national, all-hazards approach to domestic incident response
- Presents guiding coordinating principles that enable Federal response partners to prepare for, respond to, and recover from Presidential declared disasters and emergencies - from the smallest to the largest
- Emergency Support Function (ESF)

Emergency Support Functions (ESF)

- ▶ 1 - Transportation
- ▶ 2 - Communications
- ▶ 3 - Public Works/Engineering
- ▶ 4 - Firefighting
- ▶ 5 - Information & Planning
- ▶ 6 - Mass Care, Emer Assistance, Temp Housing & Human Services
- ▶ 7 - Logistics Mgmt & Resource Support
- ▶ 8 - Public Health & Medical Services
- ▶ 9 - Search and Rescue
- ▶ 10 - Oil & Hazardous Materials Response
- ▶ 11 - Agriculture & Natural Resources
- ▶ 12 - Energy
- ▶ 13 - Public Safety & Security
- ▶ 14 - (See NDRF)
- ▶ 15 - External Affairs

ESF-10: Oil & Hazardous Materials Response

Responsibilities

- ▶ EPA is Coordinator & Primary agency
- ▶ USCG is Primary agency
- ▶ Numerous other agencies have support role

Duties

- ▶ Oil & hazardous materials (chemical, biological, radiological, etc.) response
- ▶ Environmental short and long-term clean-up